Roll Call: Members: Susan Johnson, Sandy Parr, April Balsley, Nitisha Coleman, Mary Thompkins, Debra Hooie, Kendra Dixon, and Teresa Cosner. Members excused: Karen Yokota, Brandi Wade, and Tom Boyle. Motion/April and 2nd by Debbie

City Officials: Mayor Debra Perry and Marci Mayer

Volunteer/Visitors: Josef Lowry-Edgewood Karate, Wendy MacMillan—Sr. Center, and Jason Clayton—Milton Police Foundation

Approval of June 11, 2014 minutes with correction to name spelling of April Balsley. Motion to accept made by Debbie. 2nd by Mary.

Business: Correction to spelling of Fooz Ball as an activity for Milton Days. The Milton Senior Center will help with History Booth and will have a booth along with the City of Milton/Events Committee area on Milton Days. They are raffling a quilt. Josef Lowry reported that Edgewood Karate will donate directional and informational signs for Milton Days. Jason Clayton reported that the Milton Police Foundation will help with games and make arrests in their jail booth.

TShirts and raffle tickets will be sold at the July 26th Fundraiser in front of Albertsons on July 26th, August 2nd, and August 9th. The car wash fundraiser is on July 26th from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., along with the t-shirts/raffle tickets.

Mayor vetoed any action on last year's tshirts and placing donation boxes in businesses.

Kendra Dixon gave report on kids games. Clowns Unlimited is the provider of the air hockey, fooz ball, game van, and cyclone swing. Mary Thompkins made the motion that if cyclone swing cannot be placed logistically, a substitution may be made by the City of Milton and Mayor. The motion was moved by April B and seconded by Mary T.

Nitisha offered her daughter, Ashlee, as an artist for the mockup mule.

Minutes approved on July 23 as amended.
