City Officials: Mayor Debra Perry and Marci Mayer

Volunteer/Visitors: Nitsha Coleman, Matthew Barnes and Tom Poirier (Old Coots)

Motion to excuse Sandy Parr and Kendra Dixon passed.

Bike/Car Show: Matthew Barnes and Tom Poirier representing the Old Coots shared their info on the Bike/Car Show. The idea is to have trophies in various categories for cars and bikes. They asked about power at the lower end. Matty has a popcorn machine and would like to have it there. Susan is to check with the City re the use of generators in the lower park.

Committee Reports:

Entertainment: Mary presented information from Clowns Unlimited. FunAddicts canceled. Switching times and bands.

Vendors: 11 applications.

Volunteers: There is a new volunteer form. Debra Hooie will hold volunteer meetings. Suggest using the reader board to get volunteers.

Parade: 4 parade applications.

History: Karen requested volunteers be solicited to sit at the History Booth. The Senior Advisory Board will be approached to seek out volunteers. Karen's church has a vendor booth and she will be stationed at it.

Fundraising: According, the end of last year budget showed a 10,730 from 2013. The city is projecting $15,000 in cash and 1600 in donations for 2014 Milton Days. Teresa Cosner has contacted 1762 businesses.

Unfinished Business:

Skate Park Dinner: To date, no tickets sold. Donations have come in. The Signal will carry information in mid-April.

Schedule: The committee reviewed the draft schedule. The Zumba group will lead a seahawks shuffle at the closing of Milton Days. Claire Berry will be invited to the May 7 meeting.

Other Info: The committee decided not to use vans, the golf carts are enough. Fife police reported to Susan that they are in contact with the Milton Police. Most likely, we will not be doing the dunk tank. Susan is to check with the City regarding the Lanyards and name badge that Debra Hooie donated last year. The committee decided that hay bales were not needed this year.

The theme suggested regarding the Seahawks is on hold till the city lets the Committee know if okay to do. Mary Tompkins suggested that Brandy Wade ask Mike if he is available to help with the advertising info.

The meeting adjourned at 7:30pm. Nitisha Coleman took the minutes. Minutes typed up by Susan Johnson.

Next meeting: April 22 at 6 pm in City Chambers for subcommittee discussion.
Next Monthly Meeting is May 14.
