5. REGULAR AGENDA

A. Milton Days

I. City Update

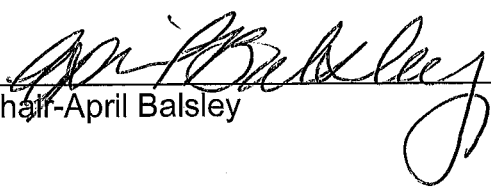

1. Bench dedication was discussed for Deb and AI, possible before Milton Days.
2. Meeting space/stage will be finished by Milton Days.
3. Should be able to fit 70 vendors with new layout.
4. Will assess where to put power poles near the new stage that will make the most sense for events.
5. Insurance audit requires us to verify proof of insurance for all vehicles in the parade, beer garden vendors, and food truck vendors going forward. Will be added to the applications.
6. Also notified that the committee cannot deny any religious or political groups from participating in city events.
7. Will be adding no profanity to applications.
8. Will also be adding for groups to specify if they are a political or religious group to applications.

II. Committee Member Updates

1. Sponsorship – Only sponsor so far is Murrey's Disposal
2. Vendors – Waiting on layout.
3. Volunteers – Will be sending out an email to last year's volunteers to see who is willing again this year. Need to add volunteers for parade route road closures.
4. Kid Zone – Pricing to hire inflatable company to man their rentals is $40 an hour per person. Discussion was had on whether to do this or not.
5. Parade – no update
9. Entertainment – Kitty Mae is book for 5-7pm. Still looking for more entertainment. Will ask The Push Rods if they are available.
10. Friday night entertainment – The Falconer is booked but will need to verify insurance.
